October Meeting

The October meeting of the Greene County Photography Club was held on Tuesday, October 27th at the Waynesburg Bible Chapel. As always, we thank Rev. Larry Douglas for the use of his congregation's church for our meetings.

The meeting began with the club competition. This month's topic was supposed to be photos from our picnic, but we threw it open to all photos so that those who had not been able to attend the picnic could also enter. Everyone seems to agree that autumn is a special time for photography. The winners were all very special pictures with Beverly's Balloon Fest third, Cathy's Birdhouses at Wana B second and Jake's Autumn at Wana B the winning photo for October. We've decided Jake has to do a club presentation in the very near future.

We congratulated a number of our club members who achieved very good results at the Taylor County show. In addition, several members are participants in the Bowlby show and it has been very well received by the public there.

There were more than two presentations for the meeting. Dave Vrana brought and showed his video from the club picnic at Wana B Park, and Jerry discussed his upcoming aerial photo book Greene from the Blue. Trudy Roney showed some of her work including a photo yard flag honoring her son who is presently serving in the military.

We've renewed our PSA membership, and we need a club coordinator so that we can participate in more of the PSA's competitions and activities.

November Meeting

The next meeting will be at 7 pm on Nov. 24th at the Waynesburg Bible Chapel. We will be meeting at the Waynesburg Bible Chapel (before King's Car Wash leaving town via Greene Street). For a bit different monthly competition, we had the visitors who saw the Bowlby Show vote on the photos displayed there, and we will announce the winners from there as our November winners.

We will use another one of the Ed Pierce videos on lighting for our presentation for the evening, and additionally, we will plan some sort of Christmas party for the December meeting. Bring your best ideas. Jerry will also bring the photos that have been taken down from the Bowlby display. If you displayed at Bowlby and do not have those pictures back yet, make sure you get them at the meeting.

Congrats to Greene Scene Calendar Winners

Congratulations to all of you who were winners in the GreeneSaver/ Pennsylvania Services Corporation Greene Scene Calendar Contest. Among the winning photographers are present or previous GCPC members, Ami Cree, Denise Chadwick, Phyllis Woods and Amy Doutt. Although she does not get the big bucks, we want to congratulate our president Janice Morris because the GreeneSaver used her photo of the Sportsmen's Club dam to advertise next year's contest!

Kathy Douglas' Project

Kathy Douglas is working on a video and photo project featuring GCPC members' photos. She needs your photos in four categories—traveling and transportation, happy times, portraits or black & whites (You can cheat by converting your color photos to black and whites using PhotoShop, LightRoom, or any of those; or if you are really challenged or lazy, just ask Kathy to cheat for you.). Truth be known, Kathy will use any photos of any subjects that you will provide for her. Get those in, and Kathy will present her finished project during the January meeting. We're all looking forward to seeing her accomplishments with your pictures.

Jerry's advertising again! Can you locate the places in the two aerial photos at the bottom of this page? (If not, ask Beverly & Janice.)

This was an unpaid, conniving, publicity scheme to encourage you to purchase Greene from the Blue.
