December 2011 Meeting and Christmas Party

The December meeting and Christmas Party was held at the Waynesburg Bible Chapel. If you missed it, you missed some great holiday fellowship and fine Christmas food treats.

The members and guests present chose the Photo of the Year from the photos chosen best each month of 2011. Every choice was a super photo making voting quite difficult. It was a real challenge to break a tie, but ultimately, Janice Morris' puppy was second and Andrew Corfont's Cinderella's Castle was the winning Photo of 2011.

The club reviewed the list of future monthly presentations and monthly competitions. Those can be found on the second page of this newsletter.

January 2012 Meeting

The January club meeting will be held at 7:00 pm on Tuesday January 24th at the Waynesburg Bible Chapel. The monthly club competition topic will be pictures depicting New Years. Everybody choose up to three 4x6 photos and enter the monthly contest. It's fun, can be an ego booster, and provides a good starting point for helpful photo discussions and advice.

We're really excited to see the presentation for our January meeting because Beverly Yoskovich has prepared a photo program from her trip to Italy. With Beverly's expertise and Italy's subject matter, we'll have a really good evening.

Remember, the Greene County Photography club invites everyone with an interest in photography to join us.
