December's Party & Meeting

The annual Greene Country Photography Club Christmas party was well attended by members and several who brought their spouses. The food was delicious! The homemade chilies were a real hit and the table was spread from appetizers to desserts. Voting took place to select the "Photo of the Year" and Andrea Semenoff won with her "Looking at the Past." There was a lively gift exchange, followed by the members devising a list of photo challenges for each month of 2018.

We still have openings for 2018 Program Directors. Sign up early to get the month of your choice. Please note that Ciara has lined up Ben McMillen as our February speaker. Janice is working on scheduling a speaker on "Stock Photography."
