March's Meeting

Congratulations to Grace Bradmon, Ann Newman and Cathy Butcher for winning the photographic challenge!

David Richter was our Program Director for our "Share Your Photographs" program. We used the room beside the Chapel and laid our photographs out on the tables. There was a wonderful variety of beautiful photographs, cards, books and canvases. Thank you to the following members who shared photographs and told us about some of their favorites: Chuck Beyer, Bob Bedison, Andrea Semenoff, Ben McMillen, Lynne Goroncy, Ann Newman, Grace Bradmon, Rebecca Thomas, Janice Morris, David Richter & Cathy Butcher.

A few of the things we learned: David R. was able to find a "secret" location used to photograph silhouette's against the horizon (but wouldn't tell the secret). Ann Newman has uploaded her beautiful 365-days nature photography on Facebook to a publisher who creates very nice books of the pictures and posts. Lynne makes many of her photographs into cards when she uses both as gifts and to send to friends and family. Grace has been inspired by Instragram and shared her winning Greene County Fair portfolio. There was some discussion of canvases. Ben McMillen said he has had good success with CG Pro Print <https://www.cgproprints.com/>. We have some "super" moon photographers, and you can't go wrong with cute children pictures!

Maybe we should have a "sharing" in the fall, too?

Ben McMillen will be our May presenter. Ben's presentation on flash and lighting will include portrait photography, using flashes and lighting. Ben is familiar with Nikon, Canon and other cameras. Bring your camera to practice and/or ask Ben questions!

Please sign up to be "Program Director" for a month. You can plan an activity, show a lesson from our Great Courses DVD, lead a discussion, show some of your photographs, present a program or line up a speaker.
