June's Meeting

Thanks to Ciara Williams for sharing an excellent video on the “ABC” considerations when matting and framing photographs. A is the Artist’s intent, B is the Background of where it is going to hang, and C is the owner’s Couch (or special needs.) Some of the topics discussed included the artist’s intent, the color values, the proportion of the colors used in the photograph, the design motif, texture and scale. Ciara helped club members mat pictures.

Congratulations to Grace Bradmon and Jerry Hardy for their winning “feet” photographs! The photography challenge for July is “optical illusion”

Reporter Fran Zajac of the Herald Standard attended our meeting. She interviewed some of our members and took a few pictures. She is writing an article about our club to appear in August or September.

Next month, Anastasia Williams will be presenting on photographing animals – showing a Great Course video and some of her portfolio. The club challenge will be: “optical illusions.”
